Mumbaikars hit by film festival fever

IndiaGlitz [Wednesday, October 21, 2009]

Befittingly, this Diwali hasn't been a great time for film lovers as they were letdown with flop shows. But then, the Mumbaikars are seemingly getting away with 11th Film Festival, ready to get-go on October 29.

The 7-day (Oct 29-Nov 5) will showcase 200 best films from 56 countries. Recently, committee members of MAMI: Yash Chopra, Amol Palekar, Amit Khanna and Shabana Azmi had revealed the line-ups of screening.

When questioned the committee members about the film festival's speciality, they said that it would be grander than the previous years with large sum involved in for hosting the festival.

Amol Palekar, one of the organizers has said that the prize money for winner would be $100,000.

The festival will start off Steven Soderbourgh's Matt Damon starrer The Informant and will see Greek filmmaker Theo Angelopoulos's The Dust of Timedraw on final day of event.
