11th Mumbai Film Festival to Open with Matt Damon's "Informant"

Lineup of 200 Entries from 56 Countries Announced

By Gautaman Bhaskaran

South Asia Correspondent

Matt Damon's "Informant"

It will open in Mumbai (Bombay) on Oct. 29, 2009 with Academy award winning director Steven Soderbergh's "The Informant". A movie that tries hard to be a comedy, it has been scripted by Scott Z. Burns and is based on a book also titled "Informant" by Kurt Eichenwald. The story centres on a complex and habitual liar, a top executive at agribusiness giant Archer Daniels Midland who helps the FBI expose a price fixing scandal at his company in the 1990s. Eventually, he is also prosecuted for embezzling large sums of money. The film, which premiered at the recent Venice Film Festival, stars Matt Damon, Scott Bakula, Joel McHale and Melanie Lynske.

India's Union Information and Broadcasting Minister Ambika Soni will be the chief guest at the inaugural ceremony, to be held at Fun Cinema, Andheri. Greek master Theo Angelopoulos and Indian actor-director Shashi Kapoor will be given Lifetime Achievement Awards. Indian Director-producer Yash Chandra will be felicitated by FIAPE, the
